

This top 48-year-old, Leon-based architect specializes in the restorations and renovations. He offers all architectural design, construction, landscaping, earthmoving and related services. Offers project design and monitoring, project budgeting, technical consulting, equipment and tool rental. He has been educated in Nicaragua and Guatemala in restoration of historical monuments. This architect has had extensive experience with construction and renovation of private, government-owned and NGO (non governmental agency)-owned buildings of varying scale and design sophistication. His extensive list includes residential designs for several doctors and members of prominent families. He has worked in Leon, Managua, the Corn Islands and Jinotega. His staff of 16 specialists has an average 15 years of experience, ranging to as high as 40 years of experience and 20 years for himself.